

Lent & Pascha Schedule 2024

Notes for Lent

Weekday Services: Matins/Vespers/Wednesday Mass continue to be held at the regular times unless noted otherwise on the schedule. Weekday Offices are preceded by the Penitential Preface (Psalm 51 and General Confession).

Sunday Litany: added after Matins until Palm Sunday. It is found at the back of the Liturgy booklet.

Wednesdays: the Mass will be followed by a Lenten Potluck with a spiritual reading during the meal until Holy Week

Fridays: Stations of the Cross are observed at 6:30 pm.

Fasting: Monday through Saturday are fast days, meaning one full meal per day not taken before noon. Sundays are observed with Abstinence, but no fasting, except for the customary Eucharistic fast. In addition a collation (about half a meal) may be taken. No meat or animal juices are eaten (many Western Orthodox also restrict fish, dairy, eggs, oil and wine by choice). Ash Wednesday and Holy Friday (Good Friday) are strict fast days when nothing is eaten until after the evening service. Talk to Fr. Alban about alterations to the guidelines adapted to your needs.
